THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmest to produce this best, most perfect purgasive which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Puzz have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win un-precedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are mfe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penstraffing properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expol disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disor-dered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they care the every day complaints of every body, but also firmidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human shill. While they produce powerful the best of human shill. While they produce powerful affects, they are at the same time, in timinished dows, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being singar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to furbid the suspicion of untruth.
